

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Bcc: [REDACTED]
Subject: [REDACTED]
Date: Monday, December 16, 2019 7:02:00 PM

Dear [REDACTED],

Please excuse the informality but I am an old experienced civil trial attorney. Luckily, I never have represented any client in criminal matters.

[REDACTED] just contacted my office and said that you dropped by her apartment. She was a former client. She would like to cooperate but I have my professional responsibility to make some inquiry about events that were so long ago.

Regarding the Epstein matter she is definitely a victim and I hope that you are aware of this fact.

That being said is she a target in any ongoing investigation?

Let me know and we can figure a good time to meet and potentially whether or not I am competent to represent her.

Thank you,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

9150 Wilshire Blvd., Suite 241
Beverly Hills, California 90212-3429

CONFIDENTIALITY

This e-mail is for the personal and exclusive use of the recipient(s) named above. It contains confidential information from [REDACTED]. Its contents are not only to remain absolutely confidential, but may also be subject to the attorney-client privilege or coverage under the work-product doctrine. If you have received this transmission and are not the intended recipient(s) or his/her agent, please be advised that any disclosure, use, review, copying, selling, dissemination, publication, or distribution of this transmission is strictly unauthorized and prohibited. If you have received this transmission in error, please notify the sender at the number above, return the original e-mail by mail, and delete the e-mail file from your computer.

Postage is guaranteed. Your cooperation is appreciated. Thank you.