

Australian Government
Australian Signals Directorate

Australian
Cyber Security
Centre

If there is an immediate threat to life or risk of harm please call 000

Thank you for your report

Based on the information you have provided; someone may have committed fraud against you.

The reference number for this report is: CIRS-20190723-30

Your matter has been referred to QLD Police.

Advice to help you reduce the consequences of the issue you are experiencing now:

- Contact your bank immediately if you have sent money or if you think you have provided confidential banking information to someone online.
- Report the issue to the financial institution who owns the fraudulent bank details you were sent.
- Change your email address, passwords and account usernames.