Reid,

No problem. Don't hesitate to be in touch prior to the hearing if that would be useful, otherwise we'll plan to see you at 10:00 and go from there.

thanks,

So just leaving the jail...tomorrow morn has gotten really jammed....give me a second after the hearing and we can talk about whether or not a visit makes sense...

No problem – didn't take it as a slight, we all just have various travel and other case obligations in the near-term and want to make sure somebody can be responsive at all times. And that also sounds helpful re: an agenda, we'll look out for that tomorrow evening and be ready to chat on Monday at 8:00.

thanks,

Apologies to █████ and █████...was not meant as a slight...assumed you would forward... hopeless on a computer...worse on a blackberry which I am using now...(will make best efforts to cc them on this message)...probably best I send a proposed informal agenda after I meet with the client tomorrow evening so I don't get out over my skies...reid

Reid,

In our experience it's rarely a waste of time to talk, and we would be available on Monday morning. And we'll be in the best position to be able to talk productively if you could give us a general sense of what you'd like to address?

Also, if you could please include [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] on any communications—I know it's often convenient to just hit reply but we want to make sure we're all in the loop since parts of the team will be more and less available at various times if and when you reach out.

thanks,

Will be with the client tomorrow evening till about 7....if you will be in your office then don't think it would be a waste of time to talk about the state of play...if not I could stop by Monday morning around 8....reid

To the Chambers of Judge Berman:

With apologies for the delay, attached please find a courtesy copy of the Government's reply in support of its detention memo and in opposition to the defendant's motion for bail, including exhibits, filed this afternoon in the above-captioned case. Defense counsel is copied.

I hope everyone has a good weekend.

Thank you,
