Alex - I hope all is well. I miss not speaking to so regularly, although I assume it means we are both able to focus on some other matters.

I wanted to just give you a heads up. As you probably saw in the papers, Jeff Sloman's former law firm recently held a press conference to announce a 50 million dollar civil lawsuit against Epstein. They purportedly represent the father and stepmother of [REDACTED]. In are light of this development, we probably have no alternative but to go ahead and notice [REDACTED] deposition in accordance with state procedure in the near future.

I am traveling today, but as you know, always reachable.

Best regards,

Jay
