New Epstein Docs Unsealed As Maxwell Fails To Gag Boies

Former Jeffrey Epstein associate Ghislaine Maxwell suffered a pair of courtroom setbacks Thursday morning, losing a bid to gag federal prosecutors and lawyers for witnesses in her sex trafficking case, and failing to convince a judge in a defamation suit to keep a trove of documents under seal.

Judge Says 'Bright Light' Must Be Shined On Liebowitz

A Manhattan federal judge is refusing to halt a sanctions order requiring copyright lawyer Richard Liebowitz to inform current and future clients about his "extraordinary record of misconduct," citing the maxim that "sunlight is said to be the best of disinfectants."
