I left a message on Thursday afternoon to follow up briefly on our prior discussion--completely understand that you're likely busy with family obligations, but wanted to make sure we connected before any next steps on your end. Please feel free to call my cell anytime (including this weekend if that's preferable), ██████████.

thanks,

[REDACTED] - Thank you for your prompt response. We will advise our client accordingly.

As for scheduling, can we plan for August 28 with the hope that your trial will be over by then (or perhaps will be in jury deliberations such that you can get away for a meeting)? If it turns out that your trial isn't over by then, perhaps we can still meet with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] that day. Please let us know if that would work.

Many thanks,

First, and most importantly, to the extent your client or any of her family, friends, loved ones, etc., feel threatened by any communications or other actions, they should not hesitate to immediately report that to authorities, whether local police, the local FBI office, and/or any other appropriate law enforcement. If your client or anyone else believes at any time that they may be in imminent danger, they should immediately call 911. Their reporting threats to authorities will not interfere with or otherwise impact our investigation and we in no way want to impede any legal steps they wish to take to ensure their safety. Please let us know if you have any questions about this at all, as we do not want there to be any confusion or miscommunication about the importance of individuals being able to ensure their safety.

Regarding a follow-up meeting, I unfortunately have a short trial starting August 26. Would it be possible to meet sometime this coming week, rather than the following? I expect we also could make ourselves available on a weekend day if that would be helpful, or we could set a time later in the week of the 26th. Or if none of that works, please let us know and we'll further confer internally about options.

thank you,

[REDACTED],

Following up on the below and our brief conversation this afternoon, you're absolutely correct that I had said we'd send transcripts of the court proceedings thus far; they are attached.

You also had asked about additional information about written or otherwise recorded messages from (or in connection with, or referencing) victims. While we're not currently in a position to provide additional detail about those particular records (in terms of identifying information on those records themselves), we can give you related information that is more specific and I think may be more helpful. Separate from the messages, we have contemporaneous telephone records, including records from a cell phone that was registered to your client, in her name -- those cell phone records reflect numerous phone contacts with multiple girls who were underage at the time of the calls.

thank you,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED],

Following up on our conversations last week and yesterday, and in response to your email, we are available to meet with you and [REDACTED] next week. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

As we covered on the phone yesterday, you should feel free to reach out to any of us on the team if you have any questions as you meet with your client, and thank you in advance for copying all of our team on email communications, as we also discussed. I think I also said that we would send you the docket numbers of the primary civil cases, which are 15 Civ. 7433 (RWS) (SDNY), 17 Civ. 616 (JGK) (SDNY), and 08 Civ. 80736 (SDFL) (the CVRA litigation). I believe there are also a number of docketed civil cases involving Mr. Epstein in federal court in Florida, and there may also be additional state cases.

Separately, I don't recall if I said we would send this, but in case it is useful for your consideration, attached is an example of our standard proffer agreement.

In terms of scheduling, next week we are available at 2:30 on Monday; anytime on Tuesday except for 12:30 to 1:30; and at either 9:30 a.m. or 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, due to a court conference and other meetings during the day.

Please let us know if we're forgetting anything or if any additional information would be useful, and we look forward to being in touch soon.

Hi [REDACTED]. Thank you again for your time on the phone last week. I'm following up on our conversation. First, I'm writing to confirm that we have now been formally retained in connection with the above-referenced matter. Second, we are available to meet with you on July 29 at 2 pm. Please let us know whether that date and time works for you. [REDACTED]

We look forward to hearing back from you regarding the above. Many thanks.

Best,
